

International Symposium

Controversies in Endocrine Surgery and Translational Research

Bergen, Norway
August 23rd – 24th, 2012

International Symposium

Controversies in Endocrine Surgery and Translational Research

Bergen, Norway, August 23rd – 24th, 2012

University of Bergen/Haukeland University Hospital Bergen
Department of Breast and Endocrine Surgery

Under the auspices of the International Association of Endocrine Surgeon (IAES), the European Society of Endocrine Surgeons (ESES), and the Norwegian Society of Breast and Endocrine Surgery (NFBE)

Topics

Key lecture “Mechanisms of Growth and Spread of Differentiated Thyroid Cancer”: Orlo H. Clark, San Francisco, USA

Translational Research in Breast and Endocrine Surgery - What is the future?

Moderators: Rolf Kåresen, Oslo, Norway; Johan Lillehaug, Bergen, Norway

Translational Research: the clinicians view

Moderators: Göran Akerström, Uppsala, Sweden; Jan Erik Varhaug, Bergen, Norway

The future of Endocrine Surgery

Moderators: Robert Udelsman, New Haven, USA; Henning Dralle, Halle, Germany

Thyroid Nodule

Moderators: Lars A. Akslen, Bergen, Norway; Bruno Niederle, Vienna, Austria

Differentiated thyroid cancer

Moderators: Orlo H. Clark, San Francisco, USA; Hennig Dralle, Halle, Germany

Primary HPT

Moderators: Bertil Hamberger, Stockholm, Sweden; Jan Erik Varhaug, Bergen, Norway

Adrenals / NET

Moderators: Jan Francois Henry, Marseille, France; Hartmut Neumann, Freiburg, Germany

www.BergenEndocrine2012.no

For more information please contact: michael.brauckhoff@kir.uib.no