

Akira Miyauchi

MD, PhD (Kuma Hospital)

Dr. Miyauchi is the President Emeritus of Kuma Hospital, Center for Excellence in Thyroid Care, Kobe, Japan, where 1,800 operations, including about 1,100 thyroid cancer cases, are performed every year. He is an endocrine surgeon, especially interested in thyroid and parathyroid diseases. He earned his MD and PhD at Osaka University Medical School in 1970 and 1978, respectively. He served President of Kuma Hospital from 2001 to March, 2022. He is a Visiting Professor of Surgery, Nippon Medical School, Tokyo, Japan and Belgrade University, Belgrade, Serbia. He was Chairman of Asian Association of Endocrine Surgeons for 8 years until March, 2020. He served President of IAES from August 2019 to August 2022. He is now Past President of IAES.