15th International Workshop on Multiple Endocrine Neoplasia and other rare endocrine tumors

This meeting will bring together experts and practitioners from all over the globe, actively involved in patient care, clinical and basic research, as well as advocacy groups of patients with rare endocrine tumor syndromes. We will provide an inspiring program including the state of the art care and research.

WorldMEN 2016 Utrecht

THE MAIN TOPICS WILL BE:

- New clinical developments and care innovations
- State-of-the-art clinical research in MEN patients
- Basic and translational research in MEN related tumors
- Initiation and extension of international initiatives for innovative patient centered care and research
- A mutual platform for patient advocacy groups, clinicians and researchers

THE SETTING WILL BE:

- Plenary sessions with prominent speakers
- Parallel sessions of the best selected abstracts
- Poster sessions with presentations
- Workshops dedicated to international collaboration
- Involvement of patient advocacy groups
- Involvement of nurses dedicated to endocrine tumor syndromes

As you may expect from the Dutch, the social program will be outstanding, located at breathtaking venues.
